My dear Sir,

I send herewith, an application from one Harihar Krishnachar a poor blind brahmin of this place, for an allowance of one Seer of rice per diem with the Lavageny thereon.

This is a very pitiable case. The man has a large family consisting of his wife, a son and 4 widowed daughters with their children. The wife goes abegging and maintains the family with very great difficulty He saw the Dewan Saheb and represented his grievances which evoked sympathy of the large-hearted gentleman who directed me to do the needful

I hope, under the above circumstances it will sanction the allowance prayed for and thus a poor family from star and misery

Yours
